PEARLS OF NATURE

43. SMILTENE STONEHENGE

35 RAUNAS STABURAGS

This cliff is a unique nature object of the post-glacial period and the only freshwater limestone formation in Latvia. It is found in the valley of the Rauna River. It has formed 8 - 10 thousand years ago, when the limestone settled and hardened on the surface of the soil. The spring that today flows over Staburags continues to grow it by the process of calcification - about 0,4 - 0,8 mm per year. It is about 3,5 m high and 17 m wide, but the total length of the step-like cliffs is 35 m.

It is strictly forbidden to climb on Raunas Staburags!

36 RAGANU CLIFFS

On the left bank of the Vaidava River there are 8 -10 m high, up to 100 m long sandstone outcrops called Raganu (Witches') cliffs. The natural monument consists of Devonian outcrops, which consist of a total of 2 large cliffs, 5 separate springs and several springy places, 4 niches. The name was given to the cliff at the time when the image of a witch stood next to it.

38 VECSAUTIŅI SPRINGS

A group of powerful springs that flow into the surface and form a pool of water. What makes the spring special is the small, constantly bubbling white sand craters that form as the spring water rises from the subterranean depths. A popular place for both sightseeing and getting drinking water from a specially designed footbridge. Geological nature protection object.

39 PILTIŅKALNS

Piltiņkalns is an ancient holy place, which, according to the clergy, is energetically significant even on a global scale. The labyrinth, created in Piltiņkalns, is called a Tree of Life because its shape resembles a branched oak tree. The trail surrounds the mountain and wraps around it in nine circles and is a symbolic passage through all stages of development from the lowest to the highest. The celebration of the Latvian annual folk festivals also takes place on top of the Piltiņkalns. The festival of folk annual customs also takes place on the Holy Mountain.

128 GAUJIENA MANOR ENSEMBLE

Gaujiena is unimaginable without a 12-hectare park on the right bank of the Gauja Valley. The park is characterized by distinct terrain. It consists of several independent territories that form a unified landscape system. The upper part includes the construction of the manor center with a parade courtyard, but on the southern side of the park on the slope of the ancient bank of the Gauja there is a valley with high grade three-level landscapes, ponds and garden architecture elements.

135 GATARTA MANOR

The first buildings in the Gatarta Manor complex were built by Nikolai Christoph Hagemeister in 1786 and 1787. A. F. von Hagemeister began the construction of stone buildings, which was completed in 1824. Elements of both classicism and baroque style were used for the manor buildings. Nowadays the Gatarta Manor house, although partially rebuilt, has preserved its original architectural forms.

The manor is available not only for excursions, but also for weddings and other celebrations.

RELIGIOUS HERITAGE

137. SMILTENE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

137 SMILTENE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

The largest rural church in Latvia, built in the form of a typical cross. The windows are made in the Gothic style, the interior is decorated with excellent wood carvings and Latvian patterns. The organ was built by Racmanis and Rollers. The church's altarpiece "The Resurrection of Christ" is unusual - it has two authors and two years of creation - in 1873 it was painted by the German-Baltic artist Ernst von Liphart, but in 1896 it was completely painted-over by the prominent Latvian painter Jānis Rozentāls. The church clock is a gift from the former President of Latvia, Kārlis Ulmanis.

140 RAUNA EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

Its origins can be sought in the 14th century. Over time, it has suffered damage and gone through a number of reconstruction works. The last reconstruction was carried out in 1937, under the direction of architect Pauls Kundziņš. During this renovation old reliefs of stone were discovered in the facade of the church, which are unique monuments of Latvian art history. Excursions led by the parish priest Edijas Kalniņa are also available.
